...Empowering and Representing Ethnic Minorities and their Organisations in Ireland

WHO WE ARE?

New Communities Partnership (NCP) is a national umbrella network of migrant led groups in Ireland. Our membership comprises community and voluntary groups from Asian, Middle Eastern, North African, European, the Caribbean, South American and African backgrounds.

OUR HISTORY

Our network was formed in 2003 by a group of community leaders who wished to represent and empower ethnic minorities and their organizations in Ireland. Though member groups' backgrounds varied widely, they shared the common goal of striving to overcome the obstacles and difficulties that arose for people building a new life in Ireland.

NCP opened it's first office in Dublin in 2005 and established offices in Cork and Limerick in 2006.

WHAT WE DO?

Ensure representation and participation of ethnic minorities all levels in Irish society in order to influence a positive change in policies that impact on their lives.

Deliver training that enhances the capacity and leadership development of ethnic minorities in Ireland.

Promote effective integration and social inclusion Initiatives at local, regional and national levels.

Promote awareness of and improve access to services in the local community in Ireland through information provision and advocacy.

Develop and sustain strategies to increase the economic integration of ethnic minorities across Ireland.

Provide a communal space for ethnic groups.

SERVICES

Citizenship Application Support Service

Free citizenship application support service with national helpline and drop in clinics. (See www.newcommunities.ie for drop in clinic locations)

EM-Cubate

Ireland's first ethnic-minority business incubation programme. The programme guides entrepreneurs and potential entrepreneurs in Ireland who wish to start or develop their own business.

Intercultural Liaison Volunteers (ILV's)

ILV's are community activists, who after a period of training, act as link between migrant communities and local authorities. Their role is to assist service users and service providers within local authority housing estates to work together and engage in conflict resolution procedures.

Migrant Writers & Performing Artists Ireland

Migrant Writers and Performing Artists Ireland serves as a creative platform for bringing together migrant artists living in Ireland.

NCP Women's Space

A space in Dublin for migrant women to link with other migrant women. Women are welcome to come along on the first Friday of each month to talk, learn, network, study, and seek advice.
